Career Opportunities

At the Social Security Administration (SSA) Office of the Inspector General (OIG), our mission is to serve the public through independent oversight of SSA's programs and operations. We accomplish our mission by:

- Conducting audits and investigations related to SSA programs and operations;
- Leading and coordinating activities and recommending policies that promote economy, efficiency, and effectiveness in SSA programs and operations, as well as that prevent and detect fraud and abuse in such programs and operations; and
- Keeping the Commissioner of Social Security and Congress fully and currently informed about fraud, waste, abuses, and deficiencies in programs and operations, as well as progress in implementing corrective actions.

Our Organization

In addition to the Immediate Office of the Inspector General, the OIG has six major components:

- Office of Investigations
- Office of Audit
- Office of the Chief Strategy Officer
- Office of Resource Management
- Office of Information Technology
- Office of the Counsel to the Inspector General

We have a staff of approximately 500 employees, 70 percent of whom are criminal investigators and auditors. However, we also employ a full range of professional, administrative, technical, and clerical occupations including, but not limited to, information technology specialists, attorneys, program analysts, budget and management analysts, human resources specialists, and public affairs specialists. We are committed to recruiting from a pool of diverse and highly qualified candidates with unique perspectives. Our culture empowers employees to think boldly and creatively.
